After that, I continued their use and was entirely relieved of backaches, pains across my joints and other symptoms of kidney trouble. During the time that has since elapsed, I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills on several occasions, getting them at Doan's drug store, and the same good results have always been received. I have also advised their use to friends and acquaintances whom I have heard complaining of backache."

61 HORSES IN ONE BIG ACT.

Most Remarkable Trained Animal Performance in the World.

The greatest achievement in the education of the brute mind is to be found in the wonderful 61-horse act which is this season one of the big animal training features of the Adam Forepaugh & Sells Bros.' big united shows, which are to exhibit in Montpelier on Monday, August 8. The act is wholly different from all horse acts of the past. Every one of the 61 handsome animals has attained the highest possible plane of brain development, their performance ending only with their physical limitations.

They perform on a circular platform of six steps entirely on music from the band, and absolutely without human guidance other than that of their trainer, who stands near at hand to prompt them by speech, if necessary. They understand every word that is said to them, and they respond with great promptness. They wait, pirouette, walk on their hind feet, bow in acknowledgment of applause, and go through all the intricate figures and manoeuvres of a grand opera ballet, working together in perfect union. They enter the ring alone and untended by grooms or trainers, and they leave the ring in the same way.

The costly and elaborate new equipment of this circus is a source of great delight to the thousands of people that throng the streets of every city on show day. There are ten acres of snow-white canvas, a mile-long train of new cars and three miles of parade wagons, as quick and span new as a falling snowflake. Every single one of the hundreds of elaborate floats and wagons and the gold-mounted daises and cages, all of the thousands of costumes, the various flags, banners and costly trappings are of European make. The big circus employs 1,000 people, owns 600 horses and has 750 curious animals on exhibition in its menagerie tent. This is an age of wonderful achievements, and as far as circus affairs are concerned the Adam Forepaugh & Sells Bros. management is far ahead of the times.

HOME RULE IN GREAT BRITAIN.

Speech Made Yesterday Favors Government Like United States.

London, July 30.—Home rule, not only for Ireland, but for other parts of Great Britain, is believed to be forthcoming by the after-dinner speech of Irish Birkbeck yesterday, in which he declared that "dragging Ireland in the wake of England is a stupid piece of business. We ought to have truly an imperial parliament in England, free of all local details." This is generally interpreted as meaning an administration which favors home rule for various parts of the empire, patterned after the state legislatures of America, under an imperial parliament corresponding to the American Congress. The Daily Express, a strong Unionist, applauds the expression, which is taken as a sign that the Conservatives will not oppose Asquith, if he tries to put the scheme into effect.

About the State

Mrs. Levi Swift of Middlesex lost 41 chickens in one night recently by weasels and eight at another time by skunks.

A car of coal consigned to B. F. Wheeler of Ludlow reached him a few days ago with a load of only four tons out of the 37 with which it left the mines.

George Perrin, aged 19 years, died last week at Sudbury, as the result of drinking ice water when overheated. He had been playing tennis and the chill of the ice water caused acute indigestion.

During a severe electrical storm in Enosburg Falls Wednesday night, the house of John Leach was struck by lightning and the interior damaged to a considerable extent, but the fire was finally extinguished.

The store of M. J. Day & Co. in Ripton was entered last week Tuesday night and $15 in cash was taken. It is not known that any goods were stolen. While it is not certain who broke in, it is thought that it was some resident of the place.

The Springfield Electric Railway Co. has been sued for $15,000 because one of its cars ran over and killed B. S. McCarthy some two years ago on a return trip from Charlestown. At the time of the accident the authorities considered that no blame could be attached to the motorman. The case is returnable at the December term of Windsor county court.

Thieves broke into the Pollard store at Ludlow Wednesday night and got away undiscovered with booty to the value of $300 and some cash. Entrance was effected through a barred cellar window, a space about nine inches wide. Seventeen dollars in cash was taken and two pairs of tan colored Chesterfield shoes, size 8½, ten watches, including four ladies', fifteen or twenty rings, 20 watch chains and a suit of clothes. It is thought that there were two men implicated in the burglary.

The barn of Moses Patenaude at North Hero was struck by lightning Wednesday evening and burned to the ground, together with the entire crop of hay, as well as the farming machinery, sleighs, etc. The loss is total, as there was no insurance. Part of the Albany, N. Y., fire company were in camp near there and rendered valuable assistance, saving the adjoining buildings from total destruction. The storm there was very severe and John Durham, who was in the field working with his horses, got under a tree for shelter, when a heavy bolt rendered the man unconscious and knocked the horses down. Mr. Durham was able, after a time, to crawl to the house but has not yet recovered from the shock.

A peculiar accident happened Tuesday when, as L. J. Royce and John P. McCann were returning in an auto to Belows Falls from Walpole, N. H., a tree, twisted and broken by the wind, fell directly across their path, the fact that it struck the power wires on the electric line across the road, doubtless saving them from instant death. The tree crashed down upon the hood of the machine, bending the steering gear, and the momentum of the car tore the seat from the body of the car and carried Mr. Royce out with it. Mr. McCann was hurled ten feet into a ditch. The auto kept on and toppled into a ditch 20 feet away. Mr. Royce had a gash cut in his forehead and was badly bruised, while the other man received no serious injuries. The hood and steering gear of the automobile were the only parts damaged. The tree which caused the accident was 14 inches in diameter.

Mrs. Ernest DeForge and her 13-year-old daughter of Colchester were seriously injured in a runaway accident Thursday afternoon, in Burlington, when the woman was badly cut about the head and the girl sustained a bad bruise at the base of the brain and was otherwise injured, possibly internally. Both were taken to the Mary Fletcher hospital. "The horse the woman was driving was a young and lively one and, when a bolt which held the thills at one side came out, the thill dropped and frightened the horse, which ran, throwing the two occupants of the wagon out, both striking on their heads. The girl was unable to walk when picked up, and seemed in a semi-unconscious state. The woman has five children at home, one of them a baby, and her husband is a laborer. The family is poor.

Hardwick is having considerable experience with thunder showers this summer, various places having been struck by lightning. Thursday, July 21, telephone poles and a flag pole were struck, and lightning played around the tines of the pitchfork which Edgar Norcross was using in the field, stunning him so that he fell from the load of hay; a bolt of lightning struck the house occupied by Carl Siloway, ripping off shingles and clapboards; the house of Dan Aldrich was struck, the lightning passing down the chimney, stove pipe, through the stove and out of doors, damaging the chimney and blowing ashes about the room; and the house and barn belonging to Dr. W. E. Bailey of East Craftsbury was burned to the ground during the same storm. Every thing was destroyed but the horses, last Wednesday another storm centered there, lightning striking a tree and the chimney of Frank Eushman's house.
